Re: Derivative lawsuit against officeholders and executives in the company regarding the decision of the Israel Competition Authority

The company announced that on October 31, 2024, it received an additional request submitted to the Economic Department of the District Court in Tel Aviv-Yafo for an order to disclose and examine documents under Section 198A of the Companies Law, 1999. This is for the purpose of examining the possibility of filing a derivative lawsuit against officeholders and executives in the company regarding the decision of the Competition Authority under Section 43(A)(3) of the Economic Competition Law, 1988. This decision pertains to the determination of a merger of companies that violated the provisions of Section 19 of the law, resulting in a monetary penalty imposed on the company in the amount of 111,331,200 NIS, as well as 601,187 NIS for each of the former officeholders, as mentioned in the company's report dated October 29, 2024.

The company is reviewing the details of the request and will respond as required and within the timelines set by law.
